nue and Miss Marie Morton, living at Lusky street and Pendleton avenue, eloped to Waterloo, Iil., yesterday morning and were merried. They gave as their reason for adopting this course a desire to have the ceremony performed quietly and to avoid publicity. Back of their marriage, yesterday, is a pretty little romance of four years'

love for each other at first sight.

The platform began by reaffirming the ment to the long courtship which would make a fitting climax to their romance. About a week ago Dugan went to Waterloo and arranged there to have the ceramony performed at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Then they engaged a flat at No. 1444A Clara avenue, and here, still keeping their secret, they met daily and conferred as to furnishings.

Testerday each slipped away from home very early and went to Waterloo. A priest was waiting and they were married at the appointed time. In the afternoon they returned home and held a small reception for their intimate friends at their bow home on Clara avenue.

Administration Condemned.

A special dispatch to The Republic, received last night from Odin, Hi., states that Miss Mattle Linthieum and James Hales, both of St. Louis, were married yesterday at the home of J. J. Lester in Odin by the Reverend Mr. Nickerson.

According to the city directory James Hales lives at No. Des Franklin avenue, He was seen there hast night, and he vehemently denued that he had been married, He said that he was employed at night as a machinist and had worked until is o clock yesterday morning. He then went to a pionic in the neighborhood of Giin, Hi. Miss Linthieum was in the party, linkes trotested that he had no thought of marrying. He supposed that the dispatch was sent as a joke by seme of his triends in Rilmois. Further questioning elicited the information from him that he was sleepy and that he would answer he more questions. After condemning the present administra-tion, the platform demands a repeal of the stance tax, declares for the election of United States Senators by a girect vote, opposed a large standing army, extends sympathies to the people of the Transvani sympathies to the people of the Transvaniand the Grange Free State, demands the strict enforcement of the Mouroe Destrine and the construction of the Negaraguan Canal and denounced the Hay-Pauncofote treaty as an abject surrender to England denounces the Landley until flaw and declares opposition to protective teriff. The platform concludes with an expression of gratified to American chires apposition to proceed the trief. The platform concludes with an expression of gratified to American soldiers in all the wars, and denounces the Fenadon Department of the present administration.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted. The Committee on Fernaneat Organization submitted its report, naming for delegated as a large.
